

VICTORIA — BENCH BY BENCH

A Creative Guide to over 60 Intriguing Sites

CONTACT AND ORDERING

Rebecca Kennel
#405-325 Maitland St.
Victoria, BC V9A 7E9
Email: rkc@rkc.ca
Phone: 250-508-2554
Website: benchbybench.com

Explore Victoria at bench level.

In Victoria — Bench by Bench, Rebecca Kennel takes you on her journey of discovery in and around spectacular Victoria, British Columbia. Visit historic sites and gardens; cemeteries and viewpoints; shipyards and restored creeks. Using pieces of local history and personal reflections, she introduces you to over 60 benches and inspires curiosity and creativity.

Whether you are here for a day, have lived here all your life, or wish you were here this delightful guidebook will be a rich experience and you will gain a unique perspective of Victoria.

Includes:

- maps, addresses, and GPS locations
- nearby Harbour Ferry, Hop-on Hop-off, and city bus stops
- where to park your car or bike
- locations of public toilets
- places to eat and drink
- wheelchair accessibility

Testimonial

I want this book for my own explorations and to give to every guest that comes to visit Victoria. In Victoria — Bench by Bench, Rebecca introduced me to wonderful areas that I had not visited in my 16 years in the city. Thank you Rebecca for this guide to lesser known beauty spots in Victoria and for sharing your own journey of exploration.
Esther Hart, author, speaker, coach

About the Author

Rebecca Kennel lives in Victoria, British Columbia and searches out benches wherever she goes. She writes, observes humanity, and appreciates natural spaces.

Kennel is available for interviews, book signings, and presentations.

TITLE

Victoria — Bench by Bench
A Creative Guide to over 60 Intriguing Sites

AUTHOR

Rebecca Lynn Kennel

ISBN

978-0-9867018-0-1

PRICE

$14.95

PUBLICATION DATE

2010, September 29

GENRE

Guidebook

AUDIENCE

Those looking to experience or learn about Victoria, BC

PAGE COUNT

152

PHOTOS

122

MAPS

13

TRIM SIZE

5x8

BINDING

Perfect Bound

WEBSITE

benchbybench.com